

COLPI

THE ROLE OF EDUCATION
IN JUVENILE JUSTICE IN EASTERN EUROPE AND
THE FORMER SOVIET UNION

Barbara Henkes

The Constitutional and Legal Policy Institute (COLPI) is the legal reform support program of the Open Society Institute–Budapest. COLPI's mission is to contribute to the development of open societies in the countries of Central and Eastern Europe, Central Asia, and Mongolia through strengthening the rule of law, respect for human rights, and modern democratic institutions. An important aspect of COLPI's mission is to help develop and strengthen the legal programs of the national Soros foundations by developing policy recommendations and conducting pilot projects on institutional reform.

COLPI focuses on implementing programs in the areas of criminal justice, including penitentiary and police reform, judicial reform, access to justice and legal aid, media legislation, anti-corruption, and legal education. COLPI places an emphasis on conducting projects which benefit the disadvantaged groups in society, particularly detainees, women, children, and national minorities.

Open Society Institute

COLPI Papers 2.